2. Defendant Amerigroup Corporation is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware with a principal office at 4425 Corporation Lane, Virginia Beach, Virginia 23462. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This is a patent infringement action. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1338.

5. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants, because Defendants conduct business in this jurisdiction, including by offering and promoting products for sale via the internet. The Court also has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Amerigroup Corporation, because it is a Delaware corporation.

COUNT ONE
INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 5,388,198

7. Plaintiff is the owner by assignment of United States Patent No. 5,388,198 (the “’198 patent”), entitled “Proactive Presentation of Automating Features to a Computer User.” The application for the ’198 patent was filed on April 16, 1992. The patent issued on February 7, 1995 and was originally assigned to Symantec Corporation. A true and correct copy of the ’198 Patent is attached as Exhibit A hereto.

8. Plaintiff holds the exclusive right to take all actions, including the filing of this patent infringement lawsuit, necessary to enforce its rights to the ’198 Patent. Plaintiff also has the right to recover all damages for past, present, and future infringement of the ’198 Patent and to seek injunctive relief as appropriate under the law.

9. Defendants have directly infringed, either literally or by equivalents, one or more claims of the ’198 Patent, including at least Claim 5, by using the claimed method in operating at least the website www.amerigroup.com in a way that automatically intervenes in a customer or potential customer's use of the website to suggest or present features based on information on the use of the system, including but not limited to autocomplete features. While a user is accessing either website, Defendants continuously monitor and compare user manipulations and program context with feature templates stored in memory and present automating features if a match is found.

10. Defendants' operation of the website in the above-described manner in the United States is without the permission of Plaintiff and constitutes infringement under 35 U.S.C. §271 for which Defendants are liable.

11. As a result of Defendants' infringement, Plaintiff has been damaged monetarily and is entitled to adequate compensation of no less than a reasonable royalty pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284.
