

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

Case No.:

ARRIVAL STAR, SA, and MELVINO
TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED,

Plaintiffs,

v.

DEMANDWARE, INC.,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

Plaintiffs ArrivalStar S.A. and Melvino Technologies Limited (collectively “Plaintiffs”), through their undersigned counsel, hereby sue the above-named defendants for patent infringement, and in support, allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE LAWSUIT

1. This is an action for patent infringement of United States Patent Numbers: 6,952,645; 6,317,060; 7,400,970 and 6,904,359; arising under the patent laws of the United States, Title 35 of the United States Code.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331; 28 U.S.C. § 1338; and 35 U.S.C. § 271.

3. This Court has personal jurisdiction over each Defendant pursuant to, inter alia, Florida’s long-arm statute, § 48.193, in that each Defendant: (a) operates, conducts, engages in, and/or carries on a business or business adventure(s) in Florida and/or has an office or agency in Florida; (b) has committed one or more tortious acts within Florida; (c) was and/or is engaged in substantial and not isolated activity within Florida; and/or (d) has purposely availed itself of Florida's laws, services and/or other benefits and therefore should reasonably anticipate being haled into one or more of the courts within the State of Florida.

4. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 and 28 U.S.C. § 1400.

THE PLAINTIFFS

5. ArrivalStar S.A. is a corporation organized under the laws of Luxembourg, having offices located at 67 Rue Michel, Welter L-2730, Luxembourg. ArrivalStar is the authorized licensee of the patents alleged as being infringed in this lawsuit, with the right to sub-license the patents at issue.

A copy of the ‘359 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

11. The ‘359 patent referenced I Paragraph 10 above was the subject of an Inter Partes reexamination at the United States Patent and Trademark Office. A Reexamination Certificate was issued on May 25, 2010 and is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

THE DEFENDANT

12. Defendant Demandware, Inc. (“Demandware”) is a Delaware Corporation with a principal place of business located at 5 Wall Street, Burlington, MA 01803. Demandware is officially authorized to transact business in Florida as a Foreign Profit Corporation, and has a registered agent in Plantation, Florida. Demandware transacts business and has, at a minimum, offered to provide and/or has provided to customers within this Judicial District and throughout the State of Florida services that infringe claims of the ‘645, ‘970, ‘060 and ‘359 patents. Finally, Demandware has agents located and working within this Judicial District utilizing technology which infringes Plaintiffs’ patents.

COUNT I – DEMANDWARE
DIRECT PATENT INFRINGEMENT

13. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate Paragraphs 1 through 12 set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

14. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271, Demandware has infringed claims of the '645, '970, '060, '359 patents through, among other activities, the commercial sale, offer and/or use of its Order Processing and Shipping Notification System and other programs/products/services/systems which utilize tracking and messaging technologies that are protected within the '645, '970, '060 and '359 patents.

15. In Addition to the preceding paragraph, Demandware, Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(a), has directly infringed claims of the '359, '645, '060 and '970 patents through, among other activities, products, programs, applications, functions, systems and methods, the use of tracking and notification technologies within its “ADVANCE SHIP NOTICE” and “SHIPMENT CONFIRMATION EMAIL” services that are protected by the '359, '645, '060 and '970 patents, as every claim limitation, or its equivalent, is found in these applications, solutions, devices, programs, products, services, methods and/or systems.

16. Furthermore, Plaintiff would argue that a means plus function claim is present. By way of example, claim 40 of the 359' Patent, "(a) means for permitting the user to predefine one or more events that will cause creation and communication of the vehicle status report, comprising....(b) means for analyzing data indicative of travel of the mobile vehicle; (c) means for enabling initialization of communication links from the host computer system to a remote communications device to be notified, when appropriate, based upon the predefined one or more events and date indicative of travel; and (d) means for delivering the status report from the host computer to the notified remote communications device during a second communication link, the status report indicating occurrence of the one or more events."

17. Demandware's direct infringement has injured and will continue to injure Plaintiffs unless and until a monetary judgment is entered in favor of Plaintiffs and/or the Court enters an injunction prohibiting further infringement and, specifically, enjoining further use of methods and systems that come within the scope of the '645, '970, '060 and '359 patents.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully ask this Court to enter judgment against Demandware and its subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, servants, employees and all persons in active concert or participation with Demandware, granting the following relief:

- A. An award of damages against Demandware adequate to compensate Plaintiffs for the infringement that has occurred with respect to Demandware, together with prejudgment interest from the date that Demandware's infringement of the patents at issue began;
- B. Increased damages as permitted pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- C. A finding that this case is exceptional and award to Plaintiffs their attorneys' fees and costs as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 285;
- D. A permanent injunction against Demandware prohibiting further infringement of the patents at issue; and,
- E. All other relief as the Court or a jury may deem proper and just in this instance.

COUNT II – DEMANDWARE INDIRECT PATENT INFRINGEMENT

18. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate Paragraphs 1 through 12 set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

19. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271, Demandware has infringed claims of the '645, '970, '060 and '359 patents through, among other activities, the commercial sale, offer and/or use of its Order Processing and Shipping Notification System and programs/products/services/systems which utilize tracking and messaging technologies that are protected within the '645, '970, '060 and '359 patents.

20. In addition to the preceding paragraph, Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(b) and (c), Demandware has indirectly infringed claims of the '359, '645, '060 and '970 patents through, among other activities, products, programs, applications, functions, systems and methods, the use of tracking and notification technologies within its “ADVANCE SHIP NOTICE” and “SHIPMENT CONFIRMATION EMAIL” services that are protected by the '359, '645, '060 and '970 patents, as Demandware actively and intentionally induced infringement with knowledge that the induced acts constituted infringement, or acted with willful blindness; and/or contributed to infringement by one or more third parties as Demandware had knowledge, rather than intent, that is activity cause such infringement.

21. Furthermore, Plaintiff would argue that a means plus function claim is present. By way of example, claim 40 of the 359' Patent, "(a) means for permitting the user to predefine one or more events that will cause creation and communication of the vehicle status report, comprising....(b) means for analyzing data indicative of travel of the mobile vehicle; (c) means for enabling initialization of communication links from the host computer system to a remote communications device to be notified, when appropriate, based upon the predefined one or more events and date indicative of travel; and (d) means for delivering the status report from the host computer to the notified remote communications device during a second communication link, the status report indicating occurrence of the one or more events."

22. Demandware's contributory infringement and/or inducement to infringe has injured and will continue to injure Plaintiffs unless and until a monetary judgment is entered in favor of Plaintiffs and/or the Court enters an injunction prohibiting further infringement and, specifically, enjoining further use of methods and systems that come within the scope of the '645, '970, '060 and '359 patents.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully ask this Court to enter judgment against and its subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, servants, employees and all persons in active concert or participation with Demandware, granting the following relief:

A. An award of damages against Demandware adequate to compensate Plaintiffs for the infringement that has occurred with respect to Demandware, together with prejudgment interest from the date that Demandware's infringement of the patents at issue began;

B. Increased damages as permitted pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;

C. A finding that this case is exceptional and award to Plaintiffs their attorneys' fees and costs as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 285;

D. A permanent injunction against Demandware prohibiting further infringement of the patents at issue; and,

E. All other relief as the Court or a jury may deem proper and just in this instance.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiffs hereby demand a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

Dated: January 28, 2015.
